AUGUST 8.

Mrs. Clarence Julian and Mrs. Sam South will be the hostesses at the Country Club Saturday afternoon.

MASTER BURDETT.

Friends in Frankfort were in receipt during the early part of the week of news from Point Pleasant, Virginia, of the arrival of a fine son to Mr. and Mrs. Pearl T. Burdett, on Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Burdett are spending the summer in Virginia, as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. F. Connors.

SPENDING VACATION

IN THE EAST.

Messrs. Jordan Hoge and Gavin Morris left Thursday evening over the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway, for Portland, Maine, where they will spend a ten days' vacation. En route home they will spend a few days at Boston, Mass., Washington, D. C., and Philadelphia, reaching Atlantic City the latter part of the month, at which place they will remain a week.

MISS O'REAR

LEADS ELKS' GERMAN.

The Entertainment Committee of the Elks Fair at Winchester delightfully entertained with a German Wednesday evening at the Auditorium, in honor of the many visiting ladies who were in Winchester attending the fair. The spacious Auditorium was beautifully decorated for the occasion with numerous potted palms and varied summer blossoms. Miss Helen O'Rear, of this city, who is the guest of Miss Anna Mae Hise during the fair, and Mr. Austin Reeser, of Winchester, lead the German and introduced quite a number of new and pretty figures. Some three hundred guests were present.

OUTING PARTY

FOR MISS NELSON.

In honor of Miss Clara Annetta Nelson, who is the guest of friends in Louisville, Miss Katherine Stone entertained Monday afternoon with a delightful outing party at Shawnee Park, at which many pleasant games were indulged in. At five o'clock a sumptuous supper was served, after which the party boarded cars for Fountaine Ferry Park, where they were entertained with a dance.

COMPASS BRIDGE CLUB ENTERTAINED.

Mrs. Ida Quintell and Miss the members of the Compass Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon on the spacious veranda at the Country Club.

The highest score for the North and South was made by Mrs. George B. Harper and Miss Carrie Weitzel. For the East and West, by Miss Irene Quintell and Miss Nina Visscher. These two last were the substitutes for Mrs. John H. Stuart and Mrs. A. C. VanWinkle.

After the game a dainty luncheon was served the members of the club and their guests, at which the tables were profusely decorated with yellow daisies.

RIVER PARTY

FOR MISS PETER.

One of the most delightful river parties of the summer season was given Wednesday afternoon by Dr. and Mrs. Sam E. James, in honor of their attractive guest, Miss Letty Lee Peter, of Louisville.

The party left at four o'clock aboard Dr. James' house boat, which was propelled by the gasoline launch, "Rescue," going up the river as far as the "Big Eddy." A most appetizing luncheon was served the party before the return home, which was made by moonlight. Those who composed the party were:

Miss Letty Lee Peter, Henrietta and Lillian Poyntz, Elise Dandridge and Rebecca Watson, Messrs. Chas. Clayton, Pruett Graham, Carl Quintell, George Gayle, D. D. Smith and John Cannon, Dr. and Mrs. S. E. James, Judge and Mrs. S. W. Hager, and Mr. and Mrs. H. V. McChesney.
